

Thompson Is A Candidate For Governor

State Senator to Seek Republican Nomination; Advocates Strict Prohibition Law Enforcement Would Block Profiteers

Purposes to Eliminate System of "Private Taxation" All Down the Line

George F. Thompson, U. S. Senator from Niagara County, announced yesterday that he would be a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor.

Senator Thompson said at the National Republican Club that if nominated and elected he would do his share "in the very necessary task of leading our people back to the first principles on which this great Republic was founded."

He said that there were too many laws, and that but few new ones were required to restore first principles. The law he wants repealed is the 275 beer bill, and he comes out squarely for the strict enforcement of the federal prohibition amendment.

"I believe the state immediately should effect a policy which will prevent profiteering in coal, oil, sugar, food and clothing, and other absolute necessities of life, and that the existing means of transportation should be forced to discontinue holding back production," said Senator Thompson.

"The people are groaning under the weight of taxation. They pay taxes to the government and the private toll takers tax us heavily in every way for everything we do. The government goes through the form of taxing the big interests. The big interests saddle their taxes, plus a big profit, on us, and finally they tax the government itself through the billions of dollars worth of supplies the government has to buy. In turn the government again taxes us to meet the tax it pays to the private toll takers. Our government taxes will go down automatically if we force out the private taxation system that is intertwined all through our government, our manufacturers, our farming and our transportation."

"I believe in a living wage for the man who works, as well as for the man who thinks."

Other portions of Thompson's political creed commit him to changes in legislative procedure so that duly constituted divisions of the state may have constitutional representation, opposition to committee rule and official dictatorship, and development of the state's water power, that coal and oil may be saved.

Seeks Utilities Reform

"The Republican party must give serious thought to the question of public utilities," said Senator Thompson. "The Republican party must find some way to protect both the consumer and the investor."

Senator Thompson said that party platforms have become irresponsible expressions, adding:

"The candidate does not make the promise, and the platform does not get the votes."

Political conventions, he said, had been made ridiculous.

The Senator's announcement was received with no surprise by Republican politicians. As far back as last February his friends announced that he would be a candidate in the primaries on a dry platform, regardless of what any conference or unofficial convention might do.

This also has been the attitude of Francis M. Hugo, Secretary of State, so that, should the unofficial state convention designate a third man, there would be a three-cornered contest in the Republican primaries.

Coolidge Passes Rainy Day In His Hotel at Boston

BOSTON, June 17.—Governor Coolidge remained in his hotel throughout the day, as the local holiday in celebration of the victory over the British at Bunker Hill made his presence at the State House unnecessary. A down-pour of rain, which continued all day, prevented his participating in the celebration and afforded him an opportunity for much needed rest.

The Governor on Saturday will go to Williamstown to take part in the commencement week exercises at Williams College.

Man Steps From Prison Into Job at $6 a Day

Learning that a prisoner was to be discharged yesterday from the Westchester County penitentiary at Elmsford, a contractor who is tackling a job short-handed on the prison grounds sent word to the warden that the man could have a job before he got out of sight of the penitentiary.

J. H. Ward, the prisoner, accepted the offer and within half an hour of his discharge was making $6 a day.

Harding Calls For Views of Party Chiefs

Republicans should take off their coats and get to work for the Republican ticket. The Johnson man explained that he had always been a Republican and that he was opposed to a third party. He said he did not believe Senator Johnson would bolt the Republican party.

Messages of congratulation continued to pour in, and the office staff was kept working at top speed sorting them out and forwarding his replies.

There was a telegram from Otto H. Kahn, of New York, in which he said: "As one who was an ardent adherent of Colonel Roosevelt and who, after the national calamity of his untimely death, favored the candidacy of that deservedly honored public servant Leonard Wood for the Presidency, I beg you to accept my sincere congratulations on your nomination. You represent and exemplify in your career that calm-minded, unspectacular, resolute American type which, equally opposed to the selfish reactionary and to the Utopian radical, believes firmly in the honored and tested doctrines, spirit and traditions of the American constitutional system of government, disregard of which within recent years is largely responsible for the troubles that beset us. I am convinced that in what you stand for you express the steady sentiment and the considered views of the great majority of Americans who are too busy with the work and duties of the day to make their voices heard above the din of noisy agitators."

Kenyon Pledges Iowa Vote

There was a message from Senator Kenyon, of Iowa, in which he said: "Congratulations. Iowa will give you 60,000 majority; that ought to be enough."

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt Jr., honeymooning at Banff Springs, Canada, wired: "Heartiest congratulations on your great victory. Hope it will be even greater in five months."

Mrs. Vanderbilt is the sister of Martin W. Littleton, New York Democrat. Hulbert Taft, Cincinnati kinsman of William Howard Taft, wired from "The Cincinnati Times-Star": "I want to add my word of congratulations on your nomination. You have the best wishes of all the Taft family, and, of course, can count upon our most earnest support in this campaign."

Chauncey M. Depew wrote as follows from New York: "I am mighty glad that the greatest office in the world goes to one so admirably fitted for it, and that this great honor came to you. I have frequently recalled you in memory when you were presiding officer of the convention in 1912 and ordered me to the platform. I am a veteran of fifty-six years of service in national conventions. I have left some of them disgraced and disheartened. I left this one joyous and jubilant in absolute faith in your success."

From Charles M. Griffiths, president of the Hamilton Republican Club of New York City, came word that the organization had adopted unanimously a resolution introduced by Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler heartily endorsing and ratifying the ticket nominated at Chicago and pledging their best efforts to the election of Harding and Coolidge.

The Roosevelt Club of Massachusetts, Senator Harding was informed today, at a meeting yesterday unanimously endorsed Harding and Coolidge and agreed to do everything in its power to bring to their support the entire following of Theodore Roosevelt. Colonel Roosevelt was the honorary president and Henry Cabot Lodge is one of the vice-presidents.

This club will issue a national appeal to all friends of Colonel Roosevelt to endorse the action of the Massachusetts organization and to take an active and dominant part in the campaign.

Labor Leader Sends Congratulations

John M. Potts, member of the executive committee, United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, Cincinnati, sent this message to Senator Harding: "Congratulations are in order, and they are sincere. I stand today where I have always stood—ready at any time to do my bit, and I am going to keep at it until the polls close next November."

Another message received read: "The Name Republican Club wishes to congratulate you and your party on your nomination and to say that we feel that the standard bearer named at Chicago gives to our party the most positive assurance of success, though in Alaska we have no voice in the election. You have our best wishes for success. W. Fred Harrison, president; John Hancock, secretary."

The Senator remained at home to night and expressed the hope that he would not be disturbed.

Harding Declines to Discuss Dry Issue Now

Will Not Announce Position on Any Question Until He Makes Acceptance Speech

CHICAGO, June 17.—Senator W. G. Harding and Governor Calvin Coolidge, nominees of the Republican National Convention, have been requested to give their stand on prohibition, according to announcement made tonight by Virgil G. Hinshaw, chairman of the Prohibition National Committee. A telegram was sent to each yesterday, reading as follows:

"Do you favor increasing the percentage of alcoholic content beyond 15 per cent in definition of intoxicating liquors now on Federal statute books?"

Mr. Hinshaw added that Senator Harding's secretary, in reply, had discussed any issue until he makes his formal acceptance in July.

No answer has been received from Governor Coolidge.

Suffrage Pickets To Greet Harding

Will Be on Hand When He Accepts the Republican Nomination

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Suffragists will carry their fight for the ratification of the Federal amendment into the Presidential campaign and will picket Senator Warren G. Harding, Republican candidate, when he makes his speech formally accepting the nomination, Miss Alice Paul, chairman of the National Woman's Party, declared today.

Senator Harding and his running mate, Governor Calvin Coolidge of Massachusetts, are to be asked directly what they will do to further suffrage. If the answer is not satisfactory they will be opposed, according to the suffragists.

"A delegation representing every state in the Union, composed mostly of Republican women, will call on Senator Harding and Governor Coolidge and put the question of suffrage directly to them," said Miss Paul. "Although we are waiting to see what the Republicans will do, because they said things would be clarified after the convention, we will picket Senator Harding when he makes his acceptance speech."

This speech is expected to outline the views of the candidate on important national questions.

"We will carry banners and make a silent protest, as we did at Chicago," added Miss Paul. "Suffragists will insist on action. If they do not get it a national convention representing 17,000,000 women voters will be called and asked not to support any candidate or party responsible for delaying ratification of the suffrage amendment."

The party opened headquarters today in San Francisco, from which will be directed an attack against the Democratic National Convention. It is planned to interview every delegate to the convention while it is in progress.

An effort will be made to bring pressure on the North Carolina Legislature to have it ratify the amendment when it meets in July. This would be the thirty-sixth and final state needed to make the amendment a part of the Constitution.

Adventists Open Convention

NORWICH, Conn., June 17.—The Seventh Day Adventists' convention of United States and Canada opened in Community House here to-night with delegates from all parts of America. The speakers were: Mrs. B. P. Wilcox, of Hartford; Judge Halifax, of Boston; the Rev. E. E. Andros, of Washington, D. C.; E. K. Slade, of Boston, and Mayor Lerou, of this city.

J. J. Walsh Out for Governor
